Transform your document processing and deliver flexibility to your customers and suppliers, with Tradex Managed Email – your complete outbound transaction solution.

Why send some electronic documents when, with Tradex Managed Email, you can send them all?

Tradex Managed Email provides your business with a managed service, through which you can send all your supplier orders, remittance advice, customer invoices and many other documents. All documents can be presented to your trading partners, who can then view them and save PDF copies free of charge.

Should any of your suppliers receive a large number of invoices through Tradex and choose to upgrade to a full connection, there will be no impact on your connection, process or costs.

By using Tradex Managed Email allow you to monitor the delivery status of documents, allowing you to verify receipt and to keep track of those which are not viewed. The ideal solution for companies looking to integrate with the document receipt process, Tradex Managed Email includes powerful reporting and document search features, to further enhance the flexibility.
